

REFLEXOLOGY ASSOCIATION OF AUSTRALIA CERTIFICATE OF CLINICAL REFLEXOLOGY

UNIT CODE	RA16 REF6A
UNIT TITLE	COMPLY WITH INDUSTRY STANDARDS
DESCRIPTOR	This unit is an Industry Standards Unit and is an overview of requirements needed within the Certificate of Clinical Reflexology and the minimum level of entry for membership of the Reflexology Association of Australia at a Certificate level.

Diploma entry requirements are higher and consist of 21 units as set by the Australian Government Accredited Training see <http://training.gov.au/Training/Details/HLT52515#>

Diploma entry will be accepted for currently Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) only.

Certificate and Entry Requirements for the Reflexology Association of Australia.

Theory Test will be provided:

Schools that teach the Certificate of Clinical Reflexology will receive the test and answer sheet for the test.

Case studies and Clinics:

Minimum 100 hours combined with supervised clinics of at least 40 hours.

Case Studies:

- Case studies should reflect learning.
- Case studies should be conducted from the commencement of Reflexology Training, from basic training to complex sessions.
- Hours for Case Studies exclude presentation of Case Studies as these should be part of the Communications.

Student Clinics:

- Student Clinics must be at least 40 hours.
- Student clinics must be supervised in that a qualified Reflexologist.
- Client evaluations must be part of the clinics and hard copies of these signed evaluations must be kept on file.

Codes of Ethics, Conduct and Legislation:

Code of Conduct/Practice, Ethics of RAoA and Legislation must be included within the course.

Training:

All applied reflexology training must be face to face with a minimum of 120 hours excluding clinics.

Correspondence Training of applied reflexology treatments and Techniques will not be accredited.

Theory Units that are not Practical/applied Reflexology training units may be completed by correspondence or workbook.

Training/Supervisor:

Must be qualified Reflexologist with a minimum of three concurrent and current years of professional membership of RAoA or an equivalent Professional Association.

Trainers/supervisors must also have three years' experience working within a professional practice as a Reflexologist.

Test and answer sheet to be provided.