About the Workshop

EFT (Emotional Freedom Technique) can assist a person to make changes in his/her life and release all those emotions that are restricting their future. The client may be experiencing an emotional situation or having physical symptoms that reflect an imbalance between the body and the mind. Using EFT and other techniques that will be explained in this workshop can help to release these blocked emotions. This workshop will give attendees the ability to use the techniques for everyday use either for themselves or for others.

Outline of workshop (after quick review)

- Choices: Choosing your future
- Permission Acceptance
- Tension; our friend
- Declarations
- Sharing Mr Bear
- Working with children
- Proxy
- Some shortcuts
- Practice time
- Scripts for pain, sleep, diagnosis, and loss.

Presenter:

Joan Marshall has a background in nursing and health education. Joan conducts small group mentoring in EFT, Meridian Tapping for change and increased release of emotional stress and traumas of life as well as finding that you can accept yourself, no matter what has been your life. Serious stuff but we can make some fun in your life. Currently tutoring at Launceston, Tasmania School for Seniors. Since 1991 Joan has seen clients, using various modalities, including craniosacral therapy, Reiki, and EFT.

“My interests are in empowering the person/body to recognize the power it has to right malfunction and heal itself.”
